Europe on $5-a-Day—the "bible" of experienced travelers. Planning to see Europe soon? Read this book before you do... take it with you. An all-time best-seller, it popularized low-cost luxury travel. This year's edition has a new, special $10-a-day supplement for those who want to spend a little more. Its chapter on inexpensive auto rentals is a do-not-miss.

These other $5-a-Day guides take you around the world for mini-money. Find out how inexpensive traveling can be to Scandinavia... Greece and Yugoslavia . . . Spain . . . England . . Ireland . . . India . . . Mexico . . . South America . . . and inside the States to New York City . . . Washington, D. C. . . . the West Coast . . . Hawaii. Candid comments that are worth a million for only $2.50! New this year — India opens up the fascinating Far East to the low-budget traveler.

Arthur Frommer's European Almanac—facts you'll be glad you knew. A fact-filled companion to any of the $5-a-Day books on Europe. 10 books under one cover: facts about 18 countries... 49 maps of 27 cities... tours of major cities... discount train plans... menu translation... extensive vocabulary guides... and indispensable glossary of hard-to-find information like road signs, clothing sizes and mileage between main roads.

Dollar-wise guides for the traveler with a little more to spend. These guides to England, Italy and now the South Pacific cover the most value for your money regardless of price range, but focus sharply on medium priced range hotels, restaurants, nightspots, tours, shopping and other facilities. Special attention is given to little known but interesting places in each country.

Take your bar exam next summer

It's the Marine Corps' test for the man who wants responsibility and leadership from the start, not at some obscure point in his future. And there isn't a tougher test you could take—for the Marines don't choose their new officers lightly. Two six week sessions at Quantico—or one ten week session—will tell them and you if you've got all it takes to lead some of the world's best fighting men. If you do, you'll pin on your lieutenant's bars after college graduation, and carry new weight on your shoulders from that moment on.
